

JUDGING CRITERIA

Best Large Front Garden : Open to all private residential premises. Front gardens must be visible to passers-by, and can include bedding plants, herbaceous plants, shrubs trees lawns and containers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☀ Health and Vigour - absence of pest and disease which best shows good horticultural practice. ☀ Overall design and suitability of design in relation to site and best use of space. ☀ Range and diversity of plants which may include interesting collections (annual or perennial) and rare or unusual species. ☀ Maintenance of paths and structures, lawns and general cultivation. ☀ Sustainability and biodiversity- approaches to sustainable planting, possible peat reduction or use of recycled green waste material along with water conservation methods.
Best Small Garden Frontage or Balcony (under 3 metres): Open to all private residential premises. Front gardens must be visible to passers-by and can be any living floral design.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☀ Health and Vigour - absence of pest and disease which best shows good horticultural practice. ☀ Overall design and suitability of design in relation to site and best use of space. ☀ Range and diversity of plants which may include interesting collections (annual or perennial) and rare or unusual species. ☀ Maintenance of paths and structures, lawns and general cultivation. ☀ Sustainability and biodiversity- approaches to sustainable planting, possible peat reduction or use of recycled green waste material along with water conservation methods.
Best Public House: All entries must be visible to the passer-by, can be of any floral design, and a living planted display.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☀ Health and Vigour - absence of pest and disease which best shows good horticultural practice. ☀ Overall design and suitability of design in relation to the business and best use of space. ☀ Range and diversity of plants which may include interesting collections (annual or perennial). ☀ Impact and presentation, use of planting to best effect. ☀ Maintenance of the built environment which shall include hard landscape features. Freedom of litter, debris and weeds.
Best Hanging Basket/Planters/ Window Box: All entries must be visible to the passer-by, can be of any floral design, and a living planted display.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☀ Health and Vigour - absence of pest and disease which best shows good horticultural practice. ☀ Overall design and suitability of design in relation to the container and best use of space. ☀ Range and diversity of plants which may include interesting collections (annual or perennial). ☀ Impact and presentation, use of colour, texture and scent to best effect. ☀ Seasonal potential plants used for long term display.
Best Allotments: The judges will visit each site and consider all plots. A positive impact on the environment is a key criterion.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☀ Range of habitats created (in relation to plot size) and areas set aside for wildlife refuge. ☀ Overall design and suitability of design in relation to the space. ☀ Range and diversity of plants chosen to attract/ benefit wildlife. ☀ Health and vigor - absence of pest and disease which best shows good horticultural practice. ☀ Sustainability and biodiversity- approaches to sustainable planting, possible peat reduction or composting along with water conservation methods, home composting.
Tallest Sunflower (under 16's): All entries must be visible to the passer-by	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☀ Sunflowers must be grown at home by the entrant. Any variety of sunflower (Helianthus species) is eligible for entry. Entries must be live plants.